

Purity of Soul - Key to Paradise

Bismillah Hir Rahmannir Rahim

Allaah is the sole owner of Noor, Peace, Ability, Comfort and Happiness; so beg (Dua ) from Him so that all these land in our heart, environment and material world. Make sure that worldly pleasures such as food & luxury and laziness (Ghaflat) should not influence your body, mind and heart . If various adversity, discomforts and tests (Azmaish) surround you , first pause, have patience then think for what reason am I facing these adversity ? Have I committed a sin or done a mistake? Then, watch your thoughts, speech, and actions; which should not violate the Commands of Allaah & Sunnah of Prophet (SWS), rather it should please Allaah more.

While facing various worldly discomforts and adverse situations one should not be confused or commit mistakes but instead, fulfill his own responsibilities, rights of others and collect Pearls (good deeds) for the Hereafter. Peace will be in danger at the Hereafter, Health, Finance, Profession, Family, Relationship and Character building of the Children due to insufficient knowledge, ignorance of consequences, poor performance, deviation from the correct principles and not sacrificing quality time, capacity & capabilities for the work of Dawah because work of Dawah brings Allaah Help and Blessings (Nusrat) .

By seeing Allaah's help faith develops in the hidden kingdom of Allaah i.e, Iman on Allaah and Yaqeen on Prophet ( SWS) Sunnah. This is the sole reason millions of people are sacrificing home comfort and spending time in the path of Allaah. Do not run towards desires ( Khawaish) that are insatiable but working to earn basic worldly necessities involves nothing wrong. Just follow correct principles and remain focused towards all duties & responsibilities proportionately. Must learn moderation and own limitations. Identify your own short comings such as addictions and weaknesses and try to eradicate them from their root. Do not destroy yourself by your own hands; by doing wrong things and excessiveness.

We are weak but our Iman ,Yaqeen and Tawakkul are our greatest assets. With the help of these precious things with your own strength and ability, try to sacrifice desires, and mind Slavery for the Commands of Allaah & Sunnah of Prophet (SWS) and for the work of Dawah. While doing these there will be a tussle between Nafs Vs. Commands of Allaah, have patience, bear some hardship, sacrifice some comforts temporally, such as pleasures and material world for a while, but do not violate the Commands of Allaah at any cost .Once the Commands of Allaah are being fulfilled, Allaah will reward us by purifying our soul first, will send enormous Blessings to our material world, will surround Peace, Comfort and Happiness which are the shadow of Heaven .Not only to these during departing the present world (Death) He will reward us with Paradise, human ultimate success. The Real success is here. Never ignore or become insincere towards the Sunnah of Prophet ( SWS) at any situation.

Train your mind ( Nafs) in such a way, so that it does not influence you with negative and wrong thoughts. Whatever work we do, the same thoughts develop in the mind, that is why from time to time it is important to clean the mind from all junk thoughts of the materials, these are only possible if we focus towards , Iman, Yaqeen, Fear of Allaah, Zikr of Allaah, Dua and Estegfar. Throughout our life we should think ourselves as a sinners and try to shed tears in front of Allaah for our committed sins. By doing this InshaAllah , heart will be soft and kind. It is very important to learn how to switch on and off between several activities. Always maintain self respect and dignity in front of others. Be cautious about talks and action because Allaah's hidden decision reflects in the life according to our activities and performance whether good or bad.

If we are kind and merciful towards Allaah's Creations, certainly He will send His enormous Blessing. Develop self control - just the way a jockey rides his horse with his rein and whip. If we train ourselves in this way, our desires (animalistic tendencies) will be disappeared and loyalty towards Allaah and his Prophet will be achieved.

Company with the pious, correct knowledge and experienced professional guidance's are the most important aspect of our life, to get rid of from the traps of Shytan such as controversy (fithna), loss , sufferings and humiliations. Because of the mind slavery and lack of professional guidance's many celebrities and intellectuals are trapped in the net of Shytan, although they were thought to be extremely intelligent
